City Chinese
Goes on Trial
For Slaying

Hong Sze Chiu, 35-year-old Chinese, will be faced with a man (who Tuesday night was condemned to the gallows) as a witness in the murder trial of Chin which opened here today.

Crown Prosecutor J. W. Shortt told Supreme Court that Joseph Gilbert, who was sentenced to be hanged Feb. 22, would be produced as a witness in the trial of Chin.

Gilbert was convicted of the murder of Chinese market gardener Sam Kee last Oct. 8.

Chin was jointly charged with Gilbert, but separate trials were ordered by Mr. Justice C. C. McLaughlin, who is also presiding in the trial of Chin.

To many in the court today there was a repetition in much of the proceedings, since similar evidence was brought out in the trial of Gilbert.

Mr. Shortt outlined evidence and episodes of the case.

OUTLINES CASE

Hardy Alaskan Lives; Prayed As He Froze

JUNEAU, Alaska, Dec. 15.—(BUP)—A 46-year-old fisherman related today from his hospital bed how he survived a shipwreck, a two-hour barefooted walk over a bare-naked beach during a snowstorm and five days spent in an unfurnished, unheated cabin.

D. B. Mercado was brought to St. Ann's hospital with frozen feet after another fisherman found him on the banks of Lynn canal, 30 miles north of here.

PARTNER MISSING
Mercado said he and his partner, Andy Hafner, 58, also of Juneau, were shipwrecked in the icy waters of St. James Bay when their 40-foot trawler capsized during a storm.

Hafner still is missing. Coast guard units have put out a search for him.

Mercado said he and Hafner had planned to set up a trapping camp near the bay but had weather forced them to remain aboard their boat. They were in the bunks when a gale struck; a gust of wind heeled the vessel over, a second blow turned the craft over on its side.

Mercado said he dived out pilot's house window in the black icy water. He said he could hear Hafner shouting, but when he surfaced back he got no answer.

BAKEFOOTED IN STORM

Grabbing a 2-4-4 plank, Mercado slowly worked his way to shore. Reaching the barnacle-covered beach, he found he had lost his bedroom slippers during his plunge. For two hours he walked barefooted over the rocky, cutting beach through a raging snowstorm until he came to a cabin.

"The skin on my feet was shredded by the time I got to the shore," he said. "I ripped up an old mattress and wrapped my feet, which by this time had started to freeze." "I don't remember sleeping," Mercado said. "Just being cold all the time and praying that God would put it in someone's mind to look in the cabin."

It took nearly a month, another Juneau fisherman, sighted the tops of the sunken trawler's fish traps and launched the search. Mercado said Mercado's arrival at the cabin was "the happiest moment of my life."

Thief To Return Saddle He Stole 30 Years Ago

CALGARY, Dec. 15.—(CP)—RCMP had a 30-year-old mystery on their hands today. The procedure is a bit reversed for they are trying to find someone who was "robbed."

They received an anonymous post card addressed simply to "RCMP, Calgary," and it was postmarked "Calgary." The message said: "I stole a saddle in Carlton in 1919 and I want to return it to its owner. Please find out who owned it and put his name in the personal column. This is not a joke. I want to make it right."

Calgary detachment has been told to get their man—this time the plainiff.

Election In U.K. Likely In June Or In February

LONDON, Dec. 15.—(CP)—February and June are the months most frequently mentioned in current speculation on the date of Britain's 1950 general election.

An official source said today his personal choice is February. All indications are that Prime Minister Attlee has not decided. One fact, which may influence his decision is the possibility of an agreeable budget when the house meets Jan. 24.

MODERN trend in school architecture is well exemplified in the combined public and high school completed this year in Dawson Creek, B. C., and designed to take care of the rapidly expanding student population of that progressive community.

West Germany Full Marshall Plan Partner

BONN, Germany, Dec. 15.—(UP)—West Germany took long strides on the road back today when the infant republic became a full partner in the Marshall Plan and won closer diplomatic links with 11 countries.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and U.S. high commissioner John G. McCloy, in a brief ceremony at the Bonn chancellery, signed an agreement authorizing West Germany to act on its own behalf in the framework of the economic co-operation act.

The allied high commission had handled Marshall Plan affairs for West Germany.

A little later the heads of 11 diplomatic missions to be situated in West Germany presented their credentials to the three allied high commissioners.

Under the occupation statute the commissioners act for Germany in the field of foreign relations. The ceremony established an indirect diplomatic link between the Bonn regime and the 11 countries. They are Canada, Luxembourg, India, Greece, South Africa, Belgium, Sweden, Italy, Switzerland, Denmark and Spain.

Heretofore the high commission has acted for Germany in all matters relating to her participation in the Marshall Plan. The agreement generally paralleled those with all other B-7A countries.

School Division Expenses Soaring

Salaries of Teachers Alone Climb $66,000 in 6 Years

WETASKIWIN, Dec. 15.—Income from taxation in Wetaskiwin School Division No. 30 at 23 mills amounts to $161,000 and from government grants approximately $61,000 is received.

Reports presented at annual meeting of taxpayers held throughout the division show how uncontrollable expenses have jumped during the past few years. Among larger increases, salaries of teachers stand out. For 1949 the item alone amounted to $120,000, while in 1943 salaries totaled only $54,000.

Another large item was for transportation. Latest obtainable figures show this item at about $20,000. However while it looks like a formidable item, secretary-treasurer Stevens points out the extra grants and savings in school operation more than counterbalance the cost of transportation.

Fox vs. Delaney (Not Jack)

Tomorrow night, in what passes for the local Cow Palace, promoter Jack Berry will offer one of his spasmoid fight cards.

Billed as headliners are a pair of venerable mitt-slingers, 40-year-old (at least) Tiger Jack Fox and balding Dave Delaney. To quote promoter Jerry, "they met in Delaney's 38".

Now the purpose of this blab is not to throw rocks, particularly, at Mr. Berry's fight card. But it could be considered significant that not only have the two men's long since tossed aside their mecano sets, but as well neither is a product of local rings.

To be perfectly blunt about it, Berry had to pay carfare for both from fairly distant points. Fox fights out of Spokane in these days when even Joe Louis is planning to come out of retirement. Delaney is a San Francisco 'box'.

Therefore, as I see it, Berry is in exactly the same boat "Honest Gene" Mason was just about a year ago. Except that at that time Mason at least thought he had a "local hope" in Roddy McDonald.

Berry doesn't even know that consolation.

How Does It Add Up?

For the life of me I can't add up this business of bringing in even fairly high priced fighters from various points of the compass and matching them for the edification of Edmonton and district sock followers.

Certainly I can't add it up in the light of Mason's experiences.

Several times, notably the first two meetings between McDonald and Eddie Halligan, Mason "paid off" on better than $3,000. This is to say he had three C's with the government tax of 10 per cent, with which to meet his expenses.

At the time "Honest Gene", a promoter who knew all the hash-and-buff angles, incidentally, admitted he made a "little money."

And he meant just that.

Once the government tapped him and the fighters were silenced, original Ed looked like he had been to a laundry where it couldn't matter less how much shrinkage occurred.

Then came advertising costs and such financial right hooks as pavilion rent, ticket printing costs, stipends for officials and more.

In other words promoter Mason was doing a lot of work... for the benefit of a lot of other guys. But there was always a chance of uncovering that 'local boy'.

Even Olecko Has Backed Away

Now, 12 months later, Mason's successor seems to be pursuing much the same course.

Except that Berry is farther away from having a "local hope" than was the case when Mason was in the saddle. Gone from the picture is Ralph Goddard, a little gamecock who at least liked to mix it.

Jim Ego and Stan James long since have forfeited consideration as foundation stones upon which the fight game might grow healthily hereabouts. And, even if he may not know it, Benny Geary's quick recent knock-out at the hands of "Irish" Bill Eddy, Spokane, likewise was his ticket.

And last, but by no means least, Ray Olecko, promising Bulletin Golden Gloves winner with a bit of the lightning in either mitt, chucked it all a couple of weeks back.

Olecko, the story goes, has a yen to be a magician. Accordingly he's turned away where his hands are concerned. A prestidigitator who hustled grabbers generally winds up in the Three-Eye league.

So Olecko may get around to fighting once in awhile. But it won't be with any idea of reaching for some "heavy" money, to be cut up with a 10-a-lot per ter.

We are, then, back where we started. It will be "Tiger" Jack Fox against Dave Delaney tomorrow night. But then things are tough all over in the fight game.

SPRAGUE LIKELY NEW ESK PRESIDENT

Eskimo football executive meets tonight to elect its officers for the 1950 season.

And the betting on Jasper Avenue this day is that Walter Sprague will succeed Murray Montague as president of the organization.

Vice-president Sprague is understood to be the popular choice for the job in that Montague has indicated he will step out of the chair.

Other positions to be filled include those of secretary, treasurer, and three vice-presidents.

Meanwhile, the question of the hour so far as the gridders are concerned is: Whatever became of Annie Stukas?

The Eskimo coach hasn't been heard from during the past week but it is understood that he is driving back west.

But Esk manager Al Anderson is of the opinion that if Stukas lands some football players in the wilds of eastern Canada then it doesn't matter how long he stays away.

SHOULDN'T IT BE "SHAMATEURS"?

Athletic Heads Try To Define 'Amateurs'

VANCOUVER, Dec. 15.—(CP)—

Two west-coast officials have made statements this week on two subjects as controversial as they come.

One statement, by president Stan Robinson of the University of British Columbia, said he sees no objection to athletes having their way paid to college by off-campus groups—as long as the athletes meet academic requirements of the college they attend.

Mr. Robinson, in an interview yesterday, said such a modification of the definition would be a purely Canadian affair, since it would not likely meet the approval of international bodies.

"But we should give up hope," he said. "Amateurism is an ideal and we are stuck with it as a word."

He said that the necessary credit to enter the Olympic arena and passes his examination, I can see no objection to some individual or group of individuals sponsoring him."

He said he does not look favorably on the term "athletic scholarship" which applies more accurately to some American colleges where athletes gain entry through athletic ability alone.

Scholarship ability rather than physical prowess remains a solidly prime requisite, he said. But at the same time "our charter calls for us to turn out physically fit students who will make good fathers, business or professional men and good neighbors."

Alumni, over-used to watching UBC teams—mainly football—succeed time and again to the United States, have been forced on them by geography, greeted his remarks happily.

Mr. Robinson said his hope for redefinition is only one of the problems facing the AAU.

Butter coaching, better general public support and a stronger organization are others.

He also said that while he favors Canadian participation in the Olympics, he does not favor participation in such ventures as the British Empire Games—said he has a highly-trained athletic set-up capable of meeting the best competition on even terms.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Dec. 15.—(CP)—

Pring Albert Minors lengthened their first place lead in the Northern Saskatchewan Junior Hockey league last night by trouncing Flin Flon Bombers 6-3 before the smallest crowd of the season.

Mr. MacKenzie's stand was this: "If a boy has the necessary credit to enter the Olympic arena and passes his examination, I can see no objection to some individual or group of individuals sponsoring him."

He said he does not look favorably on the term "athletic scholarship" which applies more accurately to some American colleges where athletes gain entry through athletic ability alone.

Red Deer Told Keep Plugging Irrigation Plan

HANNA, Alta., Dec. 12.—(CP)—“Just keep plugging and you'll get it,” was the essence of what municipal affairs minister C. E. Gerhart yesterday told the annual meeting of the East Central Irrigation Association.

James A. Cameron of Youngstown, association president, told members that the area's farmers had been trying to get an irrigation project for the last 40 years, and it seemed, he said, all necessary surveys had been completed and it projected to be known as the Red Deer River Irrigation Project may be started.

But the provincial and Dominion governments had not signed the necessary agreements, Mr. Cameron said he could not understand why not.

Mr. Gerhart told most of the blame at the door of the Dominion government.

He said the provincial government had assured the farmers that it endorsed the scheme.

“It's your job,” he told the meeting, “to set up a committee, go in and see the provincial premier, the minister and the Prime Minister in Ottawa and find out what's wrong. There are many of us in the provincial government who say that the agreement should be signed. I suggested the reason the federal government had not signed the agreement might be that it would cause a surplus of produce for which there will be no market. Health minister Dr. W. W. Cross said the Dominion government should negotiate trade agreements with other countries and exchange Canada's surplus food for products it cannot make here.”

Farmer Seen Able To Withstand Storm

OTTAWA, Dec. 12.—(CP)—The Canadian farmer is well-equipped financially to defend himself against any economic reversal which may occur in 1933, J. G. Taggart, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, said today.

The farm-debt structure has been mostly eliminated, he said. Farm machinery had been paid off, and he had taxes in arrears and the farmer was building up financial reserves against the future.

Film Stars of 1913 Meet at Old Scene

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The film town saw a different kind of premiere last night, attended by two stars of its most famous old-time scene.

The movie kings and queens of yesteryear met in the basement of a bank to honor the anniversary of “The Squaw Man,” Hollywood's first feature picture. Cecil B. De Mille said he started directing the picture in an orange grove near the bank 20 years ago to the day.

Twice later, now a movie matron, looked dark-eyed and exotic, it a trifle faded.

Formerly radio actor Francis X. Tusman, dressed his famous profile.

Humor Niagara, a real estate dealer and character actor, was, then, then, but still, still, still with the ladies.

Mae Murray, now dabbling in television, flourished around as though she would break into a “Merry Widow” waltz.

Airplane model manufacturer Reginald Denno seemed as debonair as ever.

Jerk Hull, still active in films, was held, but still looked able to save a heroine from a rap-jam.

New Jeep

DETROIT, Dec. 12.—(AP)—High United States army Ordnance officials today inspected a new military jeep which Willys-Overland Motors said would run in water deep enough to submerge its engine completely. The new Jeep is an improved model of the military vehicle produced in quantity for the army during the Second World War.

The first of the new military jeep is shown in the picture.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Men, have you ever felt like telling your wife that her housekeeping is sloppy and mismanaged?

That common urge is the basis for a new film, which perhaps should rank among the “brave” films Hollywood is making. The picture is “The Skipper Surprised His Wife,” in which Navy Officer Robert Walker takes over a household after wife (Joan Leslie) breaks her leg.

The navy man brings a sign in the kitchen: “There is a place for everything and everything has its place.” On each cupboard and drawer is a sign telling its contents. “Chow Locker,” “Clean Locker,” etc.

CLEAR THE DECKS

Every minute of the day is regimented from the time the two sons are awakened with a loudspeaker announcing, “Man, the brooms, men!” Life is so carefully scheduled that one boy enacts,

“How do you get out of this man's navy?”

Highlight of the film is when Walker addresses a meeting of navy wives.

Housework need not be a burden, it is just inefficiency that makes it so.

By adopting navy methods, you could cut your housework in half. Why, you should be able to do an entire week's shopping in 30 minutes. Just plan your menu in advance.

Most of you who complain about your work are soap opera addicts, fence banger-overs, salesmen, encouragers, book-of-the-month clubbers or just plain lay.

“Women who grow” their husbands looking weary or unattractive just don't have the intelligence, integrity or gumption to work out a schedule and stick to it.

Among the others, William Frawley, Elmo Lincoln, Norman Kerry, Herbert Rawlinson, Quebech, Mack Sennet, Anita King, Claire Windsor, Andy Clyde, Blanche Sweet, and Winifred Kingston, who appeared in “The Squaw Man.”

Virginia Mayo Is Star of -lit

‘Most Beautiful Girl’ Gets
Lead in Hit at Capitol Here

Winner of more “beautiful girl” and “beautiful figure” awards than probably any other actress in Hollywood, is Virginia Mayo, star of Warner Brothers' latest hit “The Girl From Jones Beach.”

Prize from Army, Navy and commercial organizations have made Miss Mayo one of the most popular young stars in Hollywood.

In “The Girl From Jones Beach” she plays the part of a genuine teacher, who combines the best features of a dozen gorgeous models. She is known as The Randolph Girl—a creation of commercial artist Ronald Reagan.

Co-starring with Virginia Mayo is the popular comedian, Eddie Bracken. He portrays a confused, jolly lad, in the famous Bracken manner. His scenes with beautiful Patsy Drake are moments of riotous laughter, and throughout MONTREAL, Dec. 12.—(CP)—Opening of a trans-Atlantic passenger service linking Canada with Italy, Portugal and France for the first time was announced today by H. T. Nixon, president of Star Shipping Agency Ltd.

New Rate Boost Suggested by CPR

OTTAWA, Dec. 25.—(C.P.)—The senior vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway indicated yesterday his felt the railway needed an additional freight-rate increase of from 12 to 15 per cent to take care of its financial requirements.

The vice-president, N. R. Crowe, gave the indication in the House of Commons on Transportation after questioning by Frank Condon, opposition critic.

Mr. Crowe testified for an increase before the Transportation Committee, responding to the committee's suggestion that the railway's operating expenses were "excessive."

He said the CPR had shown an expansion program, involving capital expenditures of around $100 million over a five-year period. The program might have to be financed by a 15 per cent increase in freight rates, he said.

Mr. Crowe suggested that would mean a further increase in rate of from 12 to 15 per cent. The railway officials agreed.

The railway was awarded a general increase of 8.1 per cent in March, 1968. They then applied to the board of transport commissioners for an additional 20 per cent.

The board granted an increase of eight per cent this fall. The CPR challenged the board's decision in the Supreme Court of Canada.

The expansion program involved replacement of all steam locomotives with diesel engines, new rail installations, purchase of new freight cars and new freight cars.

Mr. Crowe said the railway's expansion program had cost $1.2 billion. The program had cost $1.2 billion. The program had cost $1.2 billion.

U.S. Dominance Called Century's 'Big Event'

By Kenneth Miller

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 15.—(UPI)—Emergence of the United States as one of two dominant world powers was the most "world-shaking" event of the first half of the 20th century, a Harvard historian said today.

"This assumption of world responsibility is both dramatic and significant in that the U.S. was forced into this position against its own wishes—without experience or preparation," said Prof. Arthur M. Schlesinger.

As the mid-century approached, the United States approached the role of a world power. The United States approached the role of a world power.

Getting Rid of Warts Brings Varied Advice

HAMILTON, Ont., Dec. 15.—(UPI)—When radio announcer Jane Grey asked help for a listener who wanted to get rid of warts, she didn't bargain for the assortment of traditional remedies her audience offered.

The mail wasn't too heavy, but a check of the letters revealed that more people believed in cancer oil treatment of warts than a doctor's prescription by a five-to-four margin.

Three people recommended use of acid, two suggested milk, milk, others suggested using ash washing socks and still others had remedies varying from German strychnine to the use of turpentine.

For cancer oil treatment, said an internal method, but rather

Devon Workers Show Santa the Oil Country

TAKING IT EASY while their mothers keep an eye on them at Devon's Christmas party are two and a half month old Gary Somerset, who didn't let an eye when he met Santa and his wife, top mate Judy Burr, six months, who completely disregarded Santa for her attention. Both boys were staged by community's clubs and everyone helped.

WIDE-EYED Devon's Christmas party was a success. The boys were the stars of the show. The party was held at the Devon Club and was attended by many guests. The boys were the stars of the show. ## Santa Puts Devon On Map of World

By Donald Travis
Bulletin Staff Writer
It took Santa Claus really to put oil-conscious Devon community on the map.

He paid his annual visit there yesterday and thrilled a lot of children. With him came a crew from the CBC to record the event.

The recording will be rebroadcast on Christmas Day from London, England, in the annual Empire Broadcast.

Every Devon child under six years of age met Santa, took part in the broadcast, and generally gave approval.

Some cried—mostly those who had never before had seen this bearded man in the red suit who hands out presents.

ALL NEW ARRIVALS
Just two years ago it was a different story in Devon. There were only a few children breaking the skyline and a few scattered lights on the 246 acres of land where the community of nearly 1,000 persons now live.

Last year Santa dropped in to say hello to the 50 odd youngsters in the town.

But yesterday he was greeted by a throng of more than 200.

Helping Santa with the whiskers and purely stomach was assistant superintendent of the field A. L. Lillberg.

The children were disappointed.

DOWN THE CHIMNEY
After Santa dropped down the chimney of the Pugsley ballroom, he started handing out gifts.

It took two hours. When it was over everyone had a toy and a peppermint stick and was happy.

About the only person not excited about the entire event was the mayor.

Single Sail on the Sea Enough to Suit Suter

By John McLean
Bulletin Staff Writer
Bill Suter is a fellow who went down to the sea in sailing ships and now is perfectly happy if he gives the mayor a lift at least once a day.

Suter was 10 when he shipped from Portsmouth as a deckhand. Sailing ships were busy those days.

In 1930 and the coast of England had barely faded from view when young Bill Suter climbed into a hull of rope to take his maker and his shame from his fellow passengers.

First was Suter's long and last trip to sea on an English ship and then he became immediately convinced that he was a landlubber.

AT CIVIC BLOCK
For 28 years Bill Suter has been proud to call himself an Edmonton resident. Today he is night foreman at the Civic block.

"England" asks Suter, "No, sir, I don't care if I ever go back again."

Last time he was back was during the First Great War. He went over with the 6th Battalion. "Started out as a private and ended up the same thing," he said.

For years he worked at Charles Campbell's bakery, and then, when the business was taken over by McGavin's, Bill went along as a doughman.

He later opened the Ideal Bakery on 111 Avenue.

But in 1938 he risked his last dollar and went to work for the city.

UPS AND DOWNS
"Guess I've cleaned up over three maxims now," he said.

He still has his hip and doesn't shoot 100 of them every night as civic block foreman.

"I'm 68 now," he said, "and I've never felt better in my life."

Edmonton was the "wild and woolly west" when he landed here in 1931.

"There were bathing suits all over the place," he recalled.

He laughs when he thinks of what it cost him to leave from Edmonton to Edmonton. "The ocean passage was $16, and it cost about the same to get to Edmonton from Halifax. That wouldn't get me to Ottawa today."

Footmen Practicing Dance With Queen

LONDON.—(CP)—In their off hours the Kings' valets are preparing for the biggest dance event of the year—the annual ball at Buckingham Palace, which Windsor Castle, held in the week before Christmas.

The King has given permission for the palace ball to be held in the state rooms and has said he expects to attend. Last year illness kept him away.

The Queen and Princess Margaret are certain to attend. The dance has been for years past, and will feature with male members of the staff.

Special classes in Scottish and old English country dances, which the Queen likes, are being given in the servants' hall, so that butlers, footmen and pages may partner her with confidence.

Each servant is allowed to bring one guest. A West End dance band and an "old-time" orchestra are being engaged. Whisky, beer and soft drinks will be served at the buffet, and there will be venison pies made to a recipe of Queen Victoria's from a volume given to the King.

Arrangements for both dances are in the hands of a staff committee headed by Sir Peter Wright, master of the King's household.

Party Whirl Keeps Bride-To-Be Busy This Pre-Christmas Season

in the KITCHEN...

By Jane Scott

Increased activity over the hot air stove gives a fragrant message from the kitchen: HOLIDAYS AHEAD!

Homemakers across the wide, wide world are busy toasting that extra handful of chopped almonds into the Christmas fruit cake, taking special care with the melt-in-the-mouth shortbread, stocking the pantry shelf with luxury goodies for the holiday feasting.

This year providence smiles upon us. Turkey prices are down at least 10c per pound, hams likewise. Mandarin oranges are plentiful and not too outrageously high-cost and a complete supply of fruit and nuts is available for cake-baking and between-meal-munching.

Little buttermilk at the corner store smiles at his wry little one-sided smile when he tells me turkeys are better quality this year than they've ever been before. Sifting his statement down, I decided about three-quarters of his enthusiasm is probably accurate.

Some families like to depart from the traditional turkey at Christmas and give their grand holiday board with roast goose or even roast duck.

For those who don't like turkey, goose and duck is fine... but I like my turkey... mmmmmmm... I really do.

Lots of us like to like to eliminate the turkey from the Christmas dinner. It's the important matter of dressings and stuffings though.

I usually consult the family for favorites, then we hold a serious meeting and vote. I always vote for rice "in" sausage dressing myself.

And here's why:

RICE AND SAUSAGE DRESSING

- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 4 cups cooked rice
- 1/2 pound sausage meat
- 2 teaspoon sage
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 teaspoon thyme
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Pepper
- 1 cup sautéed mushrooms

Put milk over the crumbs. Cook the onion in the fat until brown, then sauté the mushrooms lightly.

Add the rice to the onion mixture then the soaked crumbs, sausage meat and seasonings.

Makes 6 cups. 1 cup dressing for each pound of fowl is a good guide.

But just to prove I don't want to influence you in your decision...

Have a look at this generous list

BREAD DRESSING FOR MEAT, FISH OR POULTRY

- 1/2 cup drippings or shortening
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1 quart 1/2-inch bread cubes
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon sage or marjoram

ANCIENT TRADITION gives us plump roast fowl with spicy, savory stuffing as treat at the festive board Christmas Day.

- 2 tablespoons dry mustard
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
  - 1/2 teaspoon marjoram
  - 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
  - 1/2 cup butter or margarine
  - 6 egg yolks
- Crumble bread into small bits in a large bowl, put ham through medium blade of food grinder and add to crumbs. Add all seasonings to bread-crumbs mixture and toss lightly with your hands.
- Saute onion and celery in butter or margarine and sprinkle over seasoned crumbs. Beat egg yolks slightly and add to stuffing. Mix until all the crumbs are well coated. Fill an 18 to 22 pound bird.

SAVORY STUFFING

- 4 cups soft bread crumbs
  - 2 lbs. chopped onion
  - 2 lbs. chopped parsley
  - 1 egg
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - 1/2 tsp. sage
  - 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
  - 1/2 cup raisins
- Combine crumbs, onion and parsley. Beat egg slightly; add with salt, sage and pepper. Add butter or margarine; mix well.

MUSHROOM CHICKEN STUFFING

- 1/2 cup chopped mushrooms
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 2 lbs. cups soft bread crumbs
- 2 cups mushrooms and onion in butter or margarine; combine with crumbs.

BACON & OATMEAL STUFFING

- 2 cups chopped onion
  - 1 cup butter or margarine
  - 6 cups uncooked quick-cooking oats
  - 2 cups soft bread crumbs
  - 1 cup chopped crisp bacon
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - 1 tsp. poultry seasoning
  - 1/2 cup water
- Brown onion in butter or margarine; add oats, crumbs, bacon, salt, poultry seasoning and pepper. Add water; mix well. Make enough to stuff 12 lb. turkey.

Just enough. Burnside who is to sell the mixture, too. It should not be too moist or too dry.

Stuff the cavity of a 10 or 12 pound fowl with salt, then fill with the dressing.

Do not pack it in because dressing will be cooking and the goose might burst.

Then sew up the opening and tie wings and legs close in the necks.

To roast, place the goose in a roasting pan, cover and cook for 20 to 25 minutes. This is when you can remove a delicious wing. Then reduce the heat to medium and cook for 1 1/2 hours. Basting time is 25 minutes per pound.

When the skin of the goose is a few times to let the fat drip out.

Make the bird frequently to turn it into a golden beauty.

SPICY FOWL STUFFING

- (Makes enough for 8 to 10 pound fowl)
  - 7 cups dry bread cut in small cubes
  - 1 cup chopped apple
  - 1/2 cup chopped celery
  - 1/2 cup seedless raisins
  - 1/2 cup chopped walnuts or chestnuts
  - 1 cup melted butter
  - 1 teaspoon onion salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 teaspoon powdered sage
  - 1 teaspoon powdered thyme
  - 1 teaspoon dried parsley flakes
- Combine bread, apple, celery, raisins and nuts. Add seasonings to butter. Add gradually to bread mixture, stirring constantly.

Gray may be made from dried pine and store from giblets (use same platter with parsley and onion with water. If desired, broiled pineapple slices, topped with the dressing and eaten make an attractive garnish for the platter.

SUPERB GOOSE STUFFING

- 1 lb. loaf white bread, sliced to make 10 cups
- 2 onions
- 1/2 orange
- 1 large celery stalk
- 2 tablespoons marjoram leaves
- 1 teaspoon rosemary leaves
- 1 teaspoon thyme
- 1 teaspoon salt

Burgundy wine to moisten.

Toast the bread in the broiler until the slices are as crisp and hard as a rock, but not burned. Peel and core the apples and peel the onion. Slice your orange in two and pick out the seeds.

Now put the apple, onion, celery and celery (including the leaves) through the food chopper, paring; add just enough water to alternate with the dried bread slices. This way the bread soaks up some of the juices as you go along.

Then add the herbs, making sure you break up the herb leaves after measuring. Work herbs thoroughly into dressing, along with the onion. When the stuffing is thoroughly mixed with a fork add

Heat one egg and beat it lightly, usually into dressing, along with the onion. When the stuffing is thoroughly mixed with a fork add

MUSHROOM STUFFING

- 3 lbs. chopped onion
- 1/2 cup sliced mushrooms
- 3 lbs. butter or margarine
- 9 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 tsp. salt

Flour grains pepper water, mix well. Make enough to stuff 2 lbs. fowl.

Unemployment Here Highest Since War

Dominion-Province Parley Hears 208,000 Canadians Out of Work

OTTAWA, Dec. 15.—(CP)—Reports of increased number of jobs available for farm labor in the United States, and employment in other industries were presented today at opening sessions of the Dominion-Provincial conference.

Delegates from each province reported adequate numbers of temporary harvest workers were available to harvest 1949 crops.

There was a shortage of harvest workers since early in the year. Delegates said the change in the situation resulted from declines in farm workers and influx of other employment from Europe.

Arthur MacNamara, federal deputy labor minister, told the conference that there now were 208,000 unemployed in Canada—the highest figure since the war.

Around half of the jobs were absorbing unemployment insurance.

Alberta is reaching the point where it can no longer absorb any more immigrant farm workers, said P. A. Newcombe of the Alberta Agriculture Department, Mechanization of sugar-beet fields also meant that fewer workers would be required.

Police said both sides are here on the same night recently and switched Ontario license plates to Alberta numbers. Within 24 hours, Burke was arrested in Chatham while Hennehan was caught in London.

UNARMED PARTY
Detectives Charles Knight and Charles Shipley caught Hennehan as saying he would "volunteer" a statement if he was not required to name a "third person" involved in the theft.

Another time, Hennehan asked if a "certain person" also had been arrested, Detective Knight said.

Provincial constable A. L. Beard said Hennehan, when stopped, produced Hennehan's license and an ownership card—both issued in Alberta.

Beard said he caught Hennehan trying to tear up an envelope bearing papers with "distributor kit" instructions.

Murray Ross
Quits Hospital
Murray W. Ross, Royal Alexandra hospital secretary-treasurer for the past eight years, has resigned.

He leaves for Toronto at the end of December to become assistant secretary of Canadian Hospital Association.

Mr. Ross, born at Walsack, Sask., was business manager and executive secretary of Lament Public Hospital from 1936 to 1941, when he took up his present post. Prior to that he was accountant of Saskatoon City Hospital from 1932 to 1936.
